

Senior Operations Manager (m/f) for CEE

FlixBus is an innovative provider of mobility services with headquarters in Berlin, Munich, Milan and Paris. With more than 10,000 connections, our green buses offer a modern, comfortable, and environmentally friendly way of traveling at the best prices. This makes us the clear market leader in Germany and one of the fastest growing mobility start-ups in Europe. We are extending our network on our way to become the European market leader.

We want to internationalize our successful German business to Central Eastern Europe and therefore we are looking for a Senior Operations Manager (m/f) based in Budapest.

Your tasks:

- You work closely with our bus partners and develop long-lasting relationships
- You are the sparring partner to our bus partners, support them in all relevant matters, and train their drivers
- You self-dependently set up and steer shops (local service and sales offices) at suitable locations and manage our staff
- You ensure and optimize the quality standards of our operations and coordinate the processes at our bus stations

Your profile:

- Successfully completed Master's degree in the field of leisure and tourism, transportation, Business, Economics, or related fields of study
- 3-5 years of relevant work experience
- Staff planning, coordination and leadership experience is an advantage, so is the previous experience in the transportation or the tourism industry
- Experience in partner management a plus
- High motivation for achievement and the necessary entrepreneurial drive to develop our business with us
- Self-reliance, reliability, and conscientiousness
- Native in the language of the respective market, fluency in English; German is a plus

Our offer:

- The possibility to work flexibly, goal orientated, and independently in an experienced and professional team
- A once in a lifetime chance to participate in the development of the next "big thing" in a totally new and innovative market
- The chance to develop and implement your own ideas

Interested? If so, please answer the following questions within your application:

1. How would you organize a sustainable partner management?
2. What short-, middle-, and long-term arrangements would you take in order to boost your revenue in the service centre?

If you would like to help build the long distance bus market leader and assist in its internationalization into the European market, then we are looking forward to receiving your application. Please send your CV, cover letter, and certificates to:
